The CNBC-TV18 editorial panel and research team used a three-phase methodology to evaluate candidates:

- Shortlisting candidates after considering a combination of criteria, including financial performance, leadership, creativity, innovation and social responsibility
- Evaluating candidates on their ability to create short-term advantage, long-term value, a competitive edge
- Demonstrating leadership in the business community

The final winners were chosen by a jury comprising world-respected management strategists, academics and corporate personalities. The jury panel, headed by Uday Kotak (MD, Kotak Mahindra Bank) boasts some industry-admired names such as Shikha Sharma (Axis Bank), Cyril Shroff (Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas), VG Siddhartha (Coffee Day Enterprises) and Sanjay Nayar (KKR India).
