

HDFC Bank has been recognized at the 12th BML Munjal Awards 2017 for excellence in business through Learning and Development. The Bank has won BML Munjal Award in the 'Sustained Excellence' category for excellence in learning and development.

The BML Munjal Awards are named after Hero Group Chairman and Padma Bhushan Awardee Dr. Brijmohan Lall Munjal, a leader who has built a business conglomerate worth billions of dollars from scratch.

The award was accepted by senior members of the Bank Mr. Rajender Sehgal and Mr. Raveesh Bhatia at the hands of Mr. Prakash Javadekar, Union Minister of Human Resource Development, Government of India and Mr. Sunil Kant Munjal, Chairman, Hero Corporates Services.

The winners were selected by an independent jury, which included the following:

- Mr. Arun Kumar, Chairman & CEO, KPMG India
- Mr. Ashish Kumar Chauhan, MD & CEO, BSE Limited
- Mr. B. Ashok, CMD, Indian Oil Corporation
- Mr. D K Sarraf, CMD, ONGC Ltd.
- Mr. Padmaja Ruparel, President, Indian Angel Network
- Prof. C.P. Shrimali, Acting Director, MDI, Gurgaon
- Mr. R.C. Bhargava, Chairman, Maruti Suzuki
- Mr. Sunil Mehta, Chairman, PNB
- Mr. T.V. Mohandas Pai, Chairman, Manipal Global Education
- Mr. Vishesh Chandiok, National Managing Partner, Grant Thornton India