

HDFC Bank wins Best Case Study Award

November 28, 2015

HDFC Bank has won the Best Case Study Award at the Lean Sigma project competition organized by the American Society of Quality in Ahmedabad. American Society for Quality (ASQ) is a global community of professionals, formed in 1946, to promote the use of techniques to improve organizational quality.

HDFC Bank's project titled 'Enhancing BillPay Registration and Usage,' highlighted the benefits of paying bills online. Interestingly, another project from the bank, titled 'Cash Movement Rationalization' also reached the final of the competition.

Receiving the award – (L to R – Mr. Darshak Vasavda (CEO -Stamp Computers), Ms Nehal Mistry (Project Lead –QIG)